Footnotes

A P APTITUDE set the pace, widened the advantage when asked into the stretch then was kept to left-handed urging to maintain the margin. ARIZONA WRANGLER was well placed early, saved ground on the turn, then could make little headway through the drive but was clearly second best. SCOTTSDALE STYLE was solidly bumped at the break then raced in closest pursuit of the winner to the stretch then weakened late. SCARY MIDNIGHT took the three path on the turn, was four wide into the stretch but lacked any bid. CITY HALO was solidly bumped then took up after the start, took the three path into the stretch but was not a factor. SIMPLY came in and bumped a rival at the start, moved inside into the turn, stayed along the rail for the drive and lacked any bid. SIR RAIN DANCER flashed brief speed then was through after three furlongs and tired.
