Footnotes

RENEGADE CIELO was well placed off the leaders into the turn, lodged a three-wide bid near the quarter pole then drew clear late. HENRY D. vied for the lead then held a clear advantage near the quarter pole, responded when challenged by the winner then couldn't match strides with that one late. GATO BANDITO settled after the start, saved ground on the turn, stayed inside for the stretch and lacked a bid. ENDED vied for the early lead, was between foes midway on the turn, took the two path into the stretch and weakened. LUTE OATSON broke in the air to be away behind his field, moved into contention into the turn, was five wide into the stretch and tired.
