Footnotes

MOVE PETER MOVE was bumped at the break then set the pace, widened on the turn then was ridden out while increasing the margin through the drive with the rider just flagging her mount. PAULS PROMICE was bumped at the break and trailed early, moved to the rail into the turn, stayed inside for the stretch and earned the place. GENERAL RON S was between foes while contesting the early issue into the turn, raced three wide on the turn and into the stretch then was outfinished for the place. EL JACAL saved ground on the turn, stayed inside for the stretch and weakened. CADE'S BABY was bumped at the break then was near the pace from between foes, eased out five wide for the stretch and tired. LOOK SHARP was jostled from both sides at the break and fell back after the start then never entered contention. EMBLEMATIC STORM flashed brief speed while four wide into the turn, fell back while wide then was eased into the stretch but crossed the finish and walked off afterwards.
