Footnotes

GIMME S'MOR was three wide on the pace while between foes into the turn, took a clear lead into the stretch, drifted out some late despite right-handed urging but widened the final margin. WINESHINE was four wide on the turn, came five wide for the stretch and gamely earned the place. WEST FORTY raced outside foes on the turn, came six wide into the stretch and finished willingly while missing the place. SCARY MIDNIGHT was bumped near the half-mile pole then steadied out of tight quarters into the turn, fell back and lacked a late bid. TRIBAL HOMBRE stumbled at the break and broke behind the field then didn't threaten. VASANT came out and bumped a foe near the half-mile marker while along the rail vying for the lead, saved ground on the turn then tired through the stretch. MISSION DELTA vied for the lead while four wide into the turn, was still four wide into the stretch and tired. After a stewards inquiry, the winner was disqualified and placed fourth as the stewards ruled that one at fault for the incident into the turn.
