WESTERN PINE chased the early leader five wide, sustained a bid nearing the sixteenth pole, edged clear then was brushed nearing the wire by BANNER CAT but held well to prevail. BANNER CAT sprinted quickly clear at the break then opened up on the field into the turn, held to deep stretch, then drifted out brushing WESTERN PINE nearing the wire, was quickly straightened but failed to last. MR. GOLDEN RULER tracked the early leader racing three wide, rallied nearing the sixteenth pole, was in tight nearing the wire and yielded. ALERT THE PRESS was unhurried early saving ground and placed a mild gain late. RUTHERFORD trailed the field racing four wide and was always outrun. There was a Stewards Inquiry, also the rider of MR.GOLDEN RULER claimed interference against the rider of WESTERN PINE and after reviewing the films it was determined there would be no change.
