Footnotes

MALIBU AFFAIR tracked the early leader racing off the inside, angled out between rivals down the backstretch, went three wide to place a bid then drew off in the stretch. PAINTED SLEW chased the early leaders then dropped back while saving ground, then came back showing some effort late and gained the place. WESTERN SPIRIT set the early pace drawing clear into the first turn, was challenged into the second turn then weakened but held the show. NEARLY WAS MINE was outrun early, moved up four wide down the backstretch to place a brief bid then gave way. CHARLIE CHEATHAM dropped back racing off the rail and was not a threat.
