Footnotes

BYE BYE BUBBA dropped back down the backstretch four wide, rallied in mid turn, urged steadily through the stretch and edged clear. MR GEAR was off slow early racing well off the rail, was fanned seven wide into the stretch, urged strongly left handed and was up for the place. OH YA prompted the early pace from the outside, went five wide and flattened in the drive. GENERAL SENSE was within striking distance early five wide and lacked a closing response. MALIBU STREETS set the early pace racing four wide, was challenged in deep stretch and came up empty. SAINT OFTHEVALLEY was unhurried early racing three wide and lacked a bid. DR. DIZZLE was forwardly placed saving ground then gave way.
