Footnotes

DRUNK DIAL forced the early pace from between foes racing three wide, sustained a bid into the stretch, angled in along the rail, closed in the final furlong and was best late. DELTA RUSH set a pressured early pace saving ground, edged clear into the stretch, drifted out some nearing the wire and was outfinished. STAR SURPRISE was forwardly placed early four wide, vied nearing the quarter pole, finished willingly but didn't have enough late. VALID HI TECK was unhurried early, placed a steady effort to the top of the stretch four wide then went evenly late. RUTHERFORD was within striking distance early saving ground, angled three wide and lacked a rally. WHISKEY CHARLIE raced mid pack, went five wide and lacked a closing response. FIRST DATE pressed the early pace, was used up early and weakened. GALLERY OF STORMS was outrun early, went wide throughout and failed to menace. LOUIE'S BROTHER showed little in a dull effort. PLANKS STEP was off slow early racing off the rail, drifted out in the turn and was the widest in the stretch. JOHANNESBURG LITE was fractious in the gate, got away slow and failed to threaten. SPELL CASINO dropped steadily back, was taken up in the turn and vanned off.
