Footnotes

KERRVILLE rated outside the early speed, commenced his bid five wide on the turn, quickly moved clear with mild urging upper stretch then steadily lengthened command while ridden out. MYROSAPOZZI settled outside, angled in entering the turn, picked up his pace, swung to path five entering the lane, was no match for the winner but drew away from the rest deep stretch. SIDE CAR soon had the lead, was just off the rail taking the bend, could not stay with the top pair though all out in the stretch and just held third. HALF VOLLEY without speed from inside, saved ground through the turn, lodged a mild bid in the stretch and just missed for the show. WALKING HONOUR was forwardly placed three or four wide for more than half a mile but weaved out and in through the lane. MOORE BULL was steadied when his path was taken shortly after the break, soon well back, inside on the turn, swung out entering the lane, angled out six wide upper stretch and had no late bid. HOLLYWOOD SHOWBIZ was an early contender between rivals but faded four wide leaving the bend.
