Footnotes

HAPPY TOES was off slow early racing off the rail, began to close the gap into the second turn angling out six wide, rallied in the stretch with urging and closed well to draw clear. BLASTITARY forced the early pace from the outside racing four wide, sustained a bid to gain the lead then drew clear in the stretch but was outfinished by closing rival. TIZ TRUE was unhurried early, went three wide to place a mild bid and gained the show. MILLER'S TIME was allowed to settle early, vied into the second turn, lost some ground into the stretch then came back in the stretch with a mild effort. JACK CARTER set the early pace along the rail drawing clear and was finished early. MR. SATURDAYNIGHT was forwardly placed early saving ground then faded steadily. GLENBEIGH dropped back early racing off the inside, angled five wide at the three sixteenth and failed to threaten.
