KHAM ARTIST was unhurried early racing five wide, closed the gap into the stretch, placed a bid, was urged steadily through the stretch and edged clear. REZ COMMAND was allowed to settle early racing four wide, gained ground into the stretch, rallied late and just got up for the place. CAHONE CREEK set the early pace saving ground, gained a clear advantage at the eighth pole and failed to last. GROUND POUNDER was void of early speed, went five wide and sustained a mild effort late. HOLLYWOOD HARRY was outrun early, saved ground throughout and lacked a late response. SHOW THEM TO ME was erratic in the early going down the backstretch racing seven wide, settled some into the turn and lacked a rally in the stretch. STORMIN GHOST forced the early pace from the outside, weakened in the stretch, was taken up and vanned off after pulling up.
