Footnotes

SPORTING CHANCE moved out two paths springing from the starting gate, responded willingly when put to some encouragement right afterwards and attained a prominent position, disputed the pace from between rivals for most of the trip along the backstretch, saw the inner member of that threesome, that being EZMOSH fail to keep up a little past the half mile, went at it one on one with MACHISMO out in path three, began to put that opponent away in the general area of the five-sixteenths pole, got driven three wide into the lane, drew out to his largest lead during the remainder of the trip to the eighth pole, squandered much of it to the second place finisher in the late stages, but got the job done, kept to the task at hand. GIVEMEAMINIT took up the chase two to three wide, shifted into path six in two stages down the stretch, came home good energy procuring the place. EZMOSH along the rail, fought for the lead inside two others in the early stages, got shaken off by them a few jumps past the half mile pole, was under some coaxing chasing its former fellow pace combatants during the run around the bend, stepped into the stretch and went on to salvage the show. BOURBON CURRENCY rode the rail to the quarter pole, got maneuvered into the two path at the top of the lane, lacked the needed response. GET THE FACTS bumped lightly into the left of the starting gate, raced along the outside early but was down along the rail at the top of the turn, head cocked left and being fed light stick work in the area of the other shoulder, swung five to six wide heading for the three-sixteenths pole, made no impact, head cocked in the opposite direction than before. TAP DADDY near the inside and hand urged on the turn, tired. MACHISMO settled into the three path after the start, argued for command as the widest of three to around the seven-sixteenths marker, then sparred with the top one for about another furlong before getting shaken off. MR. DISCRETIONARY two wide stepping onto the turn, was sent five wide exiting it, never got involved.
