PARRANDA tracked just off the first flight along the rail under light rating racing into the first turn, switched off the inside entering the backstretch, was prompted to advance on the leaders four deep racing into the second bend, continued to dispute the issue three deep on the second bend, gained the advantage racing into upper stretch while shifting to the inside and drew clear under firm encouragement. E B RYDER, reserved in the opening stages while being guided to the rail, steadily drew into contention while shifting off the inside racing through the far turn, was urged to advance five deep between foes racing into upper stretch and continued with a steady late response to prevail for the place honors in time. NICKI STARSHINE tracked the pace outside foes in the second flight in the opening half, was caught four wide racing into the second bend while being prompted to advance, moved to second leaving midstretch but finished evenly between foes in late stages while losing the place honors on the wire. SILSITA, in touch with the pacesetter three deep in early stages, stalked the pace in that path into the backstretch, was urged to press the issue three deep between foes in tandem with several rivals racing into the second bend but weakened racing into upper stretch. WISHING GATE gained terms with a rival on the pace while under light rating stalking that foe in the opening half, was urged to press the issue between foes racing into the far turn, dueled along the rail racing into upper stretch and gave way. CREATIVE LICENSE, held up off the second flight while angling nearer to the inside early, moved to a contending position between foes on the far turn, briefly awaited an opening racing into upper stretch, altered course while racing in traffic through the stretch but faded in late stages when lacking the needed final response. MILLENNIA hopped a bit at the start, was settled into stride off the inside racing to the far turn, was fanned six wide racing into upper stretch but lacked a rally. SHARAPOVA SLAMS was urged to the lead along the rail in the opening stages, set the pace on a narrow margin for a half and gave way.
