Footnotes

UNUSUAL WAY broke quickly but to the outside and was hustled to the lead, was taken in hand once clear and crossed to the inside to set all of the pace, responded once asked into the lane to quickly draw off and was kept to her task until inside the sixteenth pole when she was gathered up. BLACK OAK stalked the winner from the outside, had her best bid at the quarter pole, proved no match and outdueled MARKS MINE for the place. MARKS MINE broke a step slow then raced up inside to track the winner into the stretch, could not go with that one and lost the place narrowly while much best of the rest. SLIGHTLY GAMEY lacked early speed, raced in the three path on the turn but never reached contention. EGYPTIAN FEMME showed little. ROYAL RECRUIT settled early and failed to respond while two wide on the turn.
