Footnotes

SAVE THE SANGRIA took the inside route to the quarter pole, shifted towards the two path when set down for the drive home, closed in on the leader, wore down that rival inside the sixteenth marker then had enough run left at the end to preserve the decision. SUSANS FUNNYBONE pursued the frontrunners from the three path on the turn, fanned out four to five during the initial portion of the stretch, finished with good late energy down the center of the strip to garner the place. WICKED HUNTSMAN gained control in short order, showed the way on a loosely-contested lead, spaced at a slight distance from off the rail, moved out into path three when put to a drive at the head of the stretch, was collared a few strides beyond the sixteenth pole, then weakened into the show slot. SCOTTISH DEVIL was corrected after starting to break to the outside, stalked the leader from the two path to the end of the bend, lacked a solid stretch response and backed away. WHERESTHEBARBER put a brisk hand ride at intervals along the backstretch, responded to that encouragement by reaching out in a climbing-like motion, proceeded along in the two path early on the turn, lightly coaxed, picked it up when asked at the midway point, this time without a hint of greenness, got driven five wide into the lane showing some momentum, straightened away and readily closed the gap, asked but not fully so. SHARP BID strung out four wide on the turn, failed to menace. SIMMA CUM LAUDE faded after displaying brief foot, got eased then walked off the track under its own power.
