Footnotes

FLAT OUT JAYVIEN came away in good order, got set up in path four in time for the run around the bend, moved up menacingly towards the front runners as the half was being completed, pilot applying a snug hold on the reins, was turned loose after settling in at the head of the stretch, wasted no time taking charge, would come out each time left side stick was utilized yet still drew off impressively. SMIDGE came out slightly after losing his footing springing from the starting gate, bumped solidly with RACING RAVEN right afterwards, recovered and moved onto the inside route, vied as the innermost of three all the way the five-sixteenths pole, saw the eventual winner looming boldly approaching the quarter pole and was called upon for more, proved no match, stayed on to finish in a dead heat for the place. RACING RAVEN steadied after making contact with SMIDGE in the shadow of the starting gate, dove over to the rail in short order, was cued up abandoning it a short distance from the quarter pole, wound up three wide a furlong later, closed in to finish on even terms with SMIDGE for second. PLATINUM NUGGET pulled off a pair of bumping rivals to his left at the start, took up the chase in the two path on the turn, lightly hand urge, swung approximately five wide into the stretch, made no impact en route to grabbing the last major check. FRIENDSHIP SEVEN disputed the pace from path three and as the widest of a trio to the five-sixteenths marker, kept up the fight for a little while longer when put to a drive departing that station before giving way. GARSOON guided into the two path, was put to brisk encouragement during the initial stages, failed to make his presence felt. NO NO NOAH argued for command two wide and from between rivals until the five-sixteenths marker, got eased down the lane after having bled. After reviewing a claim of foul lodged by the rider of SMIDGE against the rider of RACING RAVEN alleging interference at the start, the Stewards allowed the result to stand and the race was declared official.
