Footnotes

VALEDICTORIAN came away in good order and shadowed VENDITA from outside, took over and moved to the rail with little trouble soon after going a half-mile, shrugged off an initial challenge from PROCTOR'S LEDGE in upper stretch, and fought resolutely on the rail to deny that persistent foe late. PROCTOR'S LEDGE was a bit keen three wide off the early leaders, moved after VALEDICTORIAN shifting to the two-path around the far turn, tested that one through the length of the stretch and could not get by. ANDINA DEL SUR bumped solidly with MIDNIGHT SOIREE at the start, went along close-up in the second flight three wide early, shifted inward a bit to the lane in the two-path, and battled gamely between rivals late for the show. FIRE KEY tossed her head at the break to get away slowest, saved ground trailing to the backstretch, crept a bit closer two wide after six furlongs, and rallied mildly. QUEBEC went along reserved and close-up early inside, stayed in range two wide on the far turn before cutting the corner, and finished evenly on the rail. MIDNIGHT SOIREE bumped hard with ANDINA DEL SUR at the start, was two wide behind and between foes on the first turn, remained covered up having to tap on the brakes past the half-mile pole and again past the three-eighths three wide, and made no headway in the stretch. TOO CHARMING became rank under restraint through the stretch the first time, put in a brief four-wide run around the far turn, and gave way in the lane. VENDITA set a pressured early pace, yielded readily to VALEDICTORIAN heading to the far turn, and steadied while dropping back near the quarter-pole.
