Footnotes

DR BOLT rated inside and within range, edged up under some coaxing past the five sixteenths, rallied inside rivals to take over heading to the eighth pole then drew away under a solid drive. MIDNIGHT CRY vied outside COBH, was carried out to the five path by that rival entering the stretch, corrected and fought on gamely to earn the place. DAYSTRIKE, away alertly, stalked the leaders three wide into the turn, dropped back a bit while outside the winner mid turn, remained towards the inside in the drive and kept on with interest. HUMBOLT STREET, four wide chasing the pace, shifted out wider past the three sixteenths and closed belatedly. COBH advanced inside rivals to take a short lead past the four and a half furlong marker, set a pressured pace around the turn, drifted out four wide entering the lane, straightened and gave way grudgingly. HIRSCHBEIN, off the pace, saved ground into the lane but failed to menace.
