Footnotes

SPEIGHTMAN broke slowly, never left the rail, including squeezing through a small opening entering the stretch and was along in time. SNOWFLY, racing in three path, battled between rivals through stretch and just missed. SPEEDY A. P. angled to rail on far turn, moved out on the final turn, raced five wide into stretch, took the lead briefly then weakened late. SUNSHINE WILD, racing very wide, rallied too late. CHAMPIONS MATERNAL dueled between foes early then was left with the rail and faded. UNTO THOU, wide, was never a serious threat. ALAN'S LEGACY, three then two wide dueling for command, tired. ONLY THE TRUTH, inside early, steadied back and was steered off rail entering the backstretch, raced in a forward position before tiring. VENEZUELAN SUCCESS, two wide in second flight, stopped.
