Footnotes

FUHRIOUSLY KISSED was outrun in the early stages while taking the two path, cut over to the inside route approaching the half mile pole, moved up during the run around the far turn, unleashed a bold bid, judiciously cutting the corner into the lane, with all the others having chosen much wider routes to take into the stretch, grabbed away the advantage then edged away when asked for run for the initial time, this occurring at the three-sixteenths marker, extended the winning margin, despite drifting out a couple of paths in the final stages. BLUE PRIZE (ARG) was primarily towards the inside during the journey leading up the conclusion of the backstretch, got tipped out into path three wide once on the far turn, fanned out into path six from upper to midlane and went on to rally for the place. JC'S SHOOTING STAR travelled three wide on the clubhouse bend, gradually shifted to the outside making its way on turn two, until in the five path by the five-sixteenths pole, wandered to the eight path down the lane, lost out on second. SPANISH HARLEM showed the way during the initial stages, pulling on the bit while doing so, was given access to tip to the outside proceeding along the backstretch, entered the far turn from the four path, angled six to seven wide from upper to midstretch, flattened out. WINNER'S DREAM towards the three path on the first turn, was five wide and asked at the five-sixteenths marker, began the final furlong approximately seven wide, lacked the needed response. JOSEPHINE'S MOMENT took the opening turn near the three path, shifted closer to the rail afterwards, came under pressure from a pair of opponents to the outside shortly after stepping off the backstretch, moved out into path four heading home just as the winner was cutting loose with turned out to be a decisive move for her, was overhauled in short order then steadily backed away. JULES N ROME forwardly placed in the four path early and then three wide on the far turn, gave way.
