Footnotes

UNCLE CHESTER grabbed command soon after the start, cut the pace being rated along on the inside route, saw PENCE increase his presence as three-quarters was reached, got turned loose stepping into the stretch, arrived at the eighth pole with BARTLEBY in hot pursuit, dug in well to fend that opponent off. BARTLEBY travelled three wide on both turns, was set down spinning about four wide into the lane, came in slightly after some right side stickwork, squeezing a rival already in a tough spot, that is PENCE, in addition to carrying the same one closer to the rail, drew up to the winner igniting a duel, got staved off. SET ME UP lunged into the right side of the starting gate, then bumped with its next door neighbor, was unhurried in the two path during the early going, shifted into the three path for the run around the second bend, was put to a drive for the drive home, moved out into the six path, straightened away and came home with solid, but belated energy. MR. MASSENA settled into the two path proceeding along the backstretch, picked up interest and swiped the pocket away from THE INTERN approaching the conclusion of the backstretch, patiently tracked the front runners, had some room and slipped into the two path heading off turn two, brushed with PENCE in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, then bumped harder with the same rival a sixteenth down the road, momentarily nudged closer to the rail too, was soon clear enough to launch a rally but flattened out. OH SO SINISTER strung out three wide on the first turn, resumed its pursuit somewhat closer to the rail on the subsequent one, got roused leaving the three-eighths pole, angled into path five early during the stretch drive, made no headway. PENCE stalked the winner from the two path, got asked after going three-quarters, swung towards the three path for entrance into the stretch, found itself wedged in tight quarters soon afterwards, leading to some light contact with MR. MASSENA, had the runner up momentarily shift inward shortly afterwards, wound up getting trapped even tighter between rivals, bumped hard with MR. MASSENA while getting forced in a path, lacked a rally after failing to regain any interest. DOOLEY lunged into the left side of the gate, meeting up and then bumping with SET ME UP right afterwards, underwent a two wide journey for nearly three-quarters, wandered six wide down the lane while posing no threat. THE INTERN remained along the inside route after the start, had MR. MASSENA shoot by and take over the pocket slot at the half mile pole, moved into the two path, got driven into path four from upper to midstretch, made no impact. WONDERMEISTER sent quickly over to the rail, rode it to the end of the second bend, got angled three wide into upper stretch to no avail. JUMPINJACK out sharply with its initial step, brushed into the gate, got guided over to the rail midway on the backstretch after being mostly two wide prior to that action, was under some urging cutting the corner into the stretch, had no offering.
