MONAVISTA CROSSING off to an alert break, established control early, even with MISTY ON POINTE hand urged during the first few jumps out of the starting gate, edged away from that rival coming to the top of the turn, carved out the pace towards path two, head cocked to the left, stepped into the stretch still in front and was switched over to a drive, came out twice in the final furlong, the second time after some left handed stick work, but dug in well nevertheless to post the score. MAY FLOWERS away the tardiest, moved over to the hedge at the seven-sixteenths pole, got cued up getting maneuvered out into path four from upper to midstretch, shifted one path closer to the rail a sixteenth later, then rallied with good energy procuring the place. R LUCKY CHARM was gathered in by the pilot after breaking slightly to the outside, pressed the issue two to three wide on the turn, shifted nearer to the center of the course soon after stepping into the lane, failed to cut into the deficit then lost out second. HANNAH'S SMILE was hard to load, behaving in a fractious manner behind the gate before successfully put into her stall, proceeded to come away without incident, took up the chase after settling into the two path, angled six wide during the first half of the stretch drive, came inward after the second of two right side shots with approximately a sixteenth to go, leading the rider of AVERY MAEVE, not seeming to be making headway at the time, to check, then finished well enough to ean the last major slice of the pot. HOPONTHEBUSGUS cut over to the hedge before leaving the backstretch, tracked the front runners being rated along, altered course into path three coming to midstretch, was pushed one path closer by a shifring HANNAH'S SMILE, completed the final sixteenth the same way as the commencement of the stretch drive, idling behind opponents while never really in a possession of a clear seam. TARQUINIA two wide and between rivals on the turn, lacked the necessary stretch response. MISTY ON POINTE put to some hand encouragement after springing from the gate, got out-sprinted by a more confidently-handled MONAVISTA CROSSING for the the top, kept watch on that opponent continuing to save ground on the turn, had sufficient clearance along the inside corridor to launch a rally after cutting the corner, came up empty when called upon. AVERY MAEVE hung out three to four wide on the turn, fanned out five to six early in the stretch, wasn't picking up foes when forced to steady in the vicinity of the sixteenth marker.
