Footnotes

PINK LLOYD got out to set the pace, was forced to duel with GREAT WIDE OPEN (IRE) at the 5/8ths pole, had the advantage heading into the turn, saved ground, was briefly pressed by WESTERN ELEGANCE and TALE OF THE NILE late on the turn but repelled their bids at the top of the stretch, was never headed and was eased up on late. WE DEER YOU dropped back to trail the field early, saved ground on the turn, angled off of the rail turning into the stretch and rallied strongly. WESTERN ELEGANCE stalked the early pace duel, raced three-wide on the turn, commenced a bid at the 5/16ths pole, was in contention turning for home but could not reach PINK LLOYD and was outkicked for place. TALE OF THE NILE was a bit flat-footed at the start, stalked the pace duel while racing on the outside, began to advance at the 5/16ths pole while racing four-wide but failed to sustain his bid down the stretch. RIKER was ridden out of the gate and showed brief speed but was taken back leaving the chute, advanced to stalk the leaders heading into the turn, saved ground, lacked a serious bid and was empty. GREAT WIDE OPEN (IRE) pressed the leader leaving the chute, commenced a duel at the 5/8ths pole, pressed while racing two-wide on the turn and faltered down the stretch.
