Footnotes

FLYING FIRST CLASS gained a narrow advantage from the two path early while under light rating, surrendered the edge to CEASARS MARCH before going a quarter, regained the top position approaching the end of the backstretch, kicked well clear into the upper stretch, then was hard ridden the remainder. U D GHETTO swerved in at the start to trail, raced near the rail throughout and closed determinedly to be clear for the place. BOLD START tracked the dueling leaders from early on while in hand four wide, raced within easy striking distance into the stretch but couldn't produce the needed response. PROM SHOES drifted out after the start, worked his way in two wide after a quarter, was outrun to the lane, maneuvered out five wide between foes in the late going and improved position. DANNY SEZ, outrun early, raced three or four wide, was steadied when racing alongside BARKLEY SOUND nearing the end of the backstretch, continued three wide, came out eight wide leaving the turn and managed a minor gain. IZZIE'S HALO attended the pace from between foes early, continued forwardly until approaching the final quarter and weakened. OUT OF GWEDDA drifted out slightly at the break, followed the leaders in a striking position five wide to the head of the stretch and flattened out. CEASERS MARCH contested the pace three abreast early while gaining a slight edge, lost it to the winner from the inside, raced in closest attendance to FLYING FIRST CLASS to the head of the stretch and weakened thereafter. WAFI CITY raced in contention five wide to the final quarter and weakened. CARNACKS CHOICE never menaced. BARKLEY SOUND, between rivals four wide, broke down approaching the end of the backstretch.
