Footnotes

MARIES MELODY broke alertly, took over outside FUJAIHRAH approaching the backstretch and moved in, came under a ride outside the quarter-pole to fend off several challenges, and found more through the lane to hold sway. DROP A HINT prompted the pace from outside three then two wide, and stayed on well. FUJAIHRAH took the lead inside heading to the first turn, deferred to MARIES MELODY before going a quarter-mile, saved ground in range to the stretch, and finished willingly. BLUE MISTRESS raced in striking range three wide from the outset, bid between horses a quarter-mile out, and was outfinished. MERSEYSIDE settled in the two-path for most of the trip, and was one-paced through the lane. LADY PANDA broke slowly, advanced four wide around the far turn, and flattened out. MO OF THE WEST had the rider lose the left iron shortly after the start, moved off the rail after the rider recovered the stirrup early on the first turn, and lacked a solid response. MEADOW BEAUTY broke slowly, and was outrun inside. ONYX was never prominent. LAVI was always outrun. Run-up distance unavailable.
