Footnotes

SPUN D'ETAT away without apparent mishap, stalked the pace along the outside on the backstretch, angled sharply onto the rail approaching the half mile pole, vied to the inside of the second place during the run around the bend, got roused cutting the corner into the lane, saw the nemesis subtly move inward attempting to tighten things up a bit, eventually resulting in contact between the twosome, shook it off and took charge nonetheless, kicked away smartly under good handling in the last eighth. JOUSTER attained the advantage shortly after the field had been sent off and running, took up residence in the two path, showed the way feeling pressure from the winner on the turn, settled onto the top of the lane and got turned loose, wandered inward and thus into closer quarters with SPUN D'ETAT, saw them bump into each other in the general area of the three-sixteenths pole, yielded, had no trouble salvaging second. ROOKERY brushed into the side after leaning in with her initial step, took up position in midpack, departed the backstretch from path two, fanned out five wide from upper to midstretch, proved no match securing the show. O'GOTTEN GIRL well rated three wide chasing the pace, commenced the stretch one path farther to the outside, lacked the necessary response. LEN LO LADY off a half length the tardiest, saved ground for the opening half, angled about three wide into the lane, made no impact. CAPSTONE GIRL made it over to the rail prior to the conclusion of the backstretch, finished off the half, got went wider and wider during the stretch drive until in the neighborhood of path six, backed away steadily. PEACHY QUEEN shied away from a shifting foe early on the backstretch, was under a ride pursuing the pace from path two, went four wide into the lane, had little left and retreated.
