Footnotes

CLUSTER OF STARS came away in good order, was put to the gentlest of hand coaxing and kicked clear of the others to be on an open lead for most of the way down the backstretch, had the runner up hitch up leaving midpoint on the turn and slowly but steadily drawing closer and closer to the front, was the first of the pair to have the pilot commit to some kind of urging, doing so several strides before reaching the quarter pole, entered the stretch and had a spirited tussle that lasted all the way down the lane commence, fell back inches after completing the run through the furlong grounds, forged on ahead with no quit in her, regained the lead once more, albeit by only a sliver, and dug in with good determination to preserve it. NICOLE H patiently stalked the winner from the outside, ranged up leaving the three-eighths pole, drew abreast in short order, cut steadily into the lead until on nearly even terms entering the stretch, gained the narrowest of leads during the ensuing furlong, was at the furlong marker before getting asked for run, matched strides with the top one with each rival's heads bobbing up and down, both riders briskly hand riding and not choosing to use stick work while in close proximity to each other, battled with vigor to the wire but had to settle for being second best. SINGLET chased from the outside, was asked for run prior to coming three wide into the stretch, proved no match for the top twosome. CRESpano along the inside route for nearly a half, angled four wide into the stretch, had no impact.
