Footnotes

CANDIP was well rated off the pace setters, responded very well when asked into the turn and was full of run rounding the three eighths pole, entered the stretch in the four path to begin his long drive to the finish and held off the closer. MEASURED ran towards the rear then had to enter the stretch in the five path, got into stride and closed with a rush in the last sixteenth. CHIEF LION was pressured on the outside early on then began to shake clear of the field into the turn, maintained the lead in the stretch but weakened in the final furlong. CHUBLICIOUS ran towards the rear then hit his best stride in the final sixteenth. IMPERIAL HINT stalked the pace on the rail then had a rally late in the stretch. SIR ROCKPORT was slow into stride spotting the field a couple lengths, hugged the rail and rallied well. TROUBLE KID pushed the pace on the outside then folded up. WEEKEND HIDEAWAY got jostled around a bit at the five eighths pole as horses got into position, tracked the pace then got in tight again at the three eighths pole and had to be taken up losing momentum then lacked the needed response. AWESOME SPEED was in contention early on and got jostled around at the five eighths pole as horses settled into position, stayed towards the front into the turn then retreated. EASY TO SAY stalked the pace between horses then had no response. POMEROY'S PACKAGE was no factor.
