Footnotes

COMPLETED PASS had speed outside rivals, dropped in nearing the turn and rated off the duel, edged up when keen past the three eighths, clipped heels nearing the turn, regrouped and found a seam past the three sixteenths, forged clear with a furlong remaining, kept on under right handed rousing and held firm. SO STREET settled off the pace and raced in the clear mid turn, swung five to six wide entering the lane, drifted in advancing past the three sixteenths, was corrected with left handed stick work and finished gamely. LOVE YOU MUCH , away well, rated in range of the contested pace, took closer order behind the winner nearing the five sixteenths, steadied off that rival soon after, moved up past mid stretch, angled in and finished well while just missing the place. LEMON ZIP , unhurried early while saving ground, eased out nearing mid stretch, split rivals near the sixteenth pole and finished well. JOSEPH lacked speed, circled five wide into the lane, angled further out but lacked a solid kick. WET YOUR WHISTLE , sluggish from the gate, raced well back leaving the far turn, swung well wide but failed to rally. MISSIN THE BIG DOG stalked off the rail, angled four to five wide advancing towards the lane, failed to kick on nearing the furlong grounds and faded. SINGANOTHERSONG dueled inside on a short early lead, attempted to lug out while battling into the lane, stayed willingly to mid stretch then faded. OLDIES BUT GOODIES dueled outside a rival, moved to a short lead past the three eighths, had his heels clipped entering the lane, fought on to mid stretch then steadily gave way. TEMPT ME TWICE stalked three to four wide, briefly threatened between runners entering the lane, failed to go on past the three sixteenths and retreated. There was a stewards' inquiry into the run into the lane and an objection by the rider of LOVE YOU MUCH against the winner for alleged interference entering the stretch. No action was deemed necessary
