Footnotes

CARRIBEAN SUNSET (IRE) rated well back of the pacesetter toward the inside, started her drive passing the three eighths pole, took the lead a stride inside the furlong pole then dug in gamely to keep the runner-up at her flanks. I LOST MY CHOO, unhurried about the four path, bid near the three eighths pole, had aim at the winner from midstretch and finished well though was unable to get by that one. SCOLARA, unhurried off the rail, bid five wide on the final turn and finished evenly to show. CHESTORIA rated back inside, started her drive into the final turn, dug in for a slim brief lead midstretch then gradually ceded the remaining sixteenth. SOCIAL QUEEN, unhurried off the rail, bid while eased out into the lane and closed mildly from there. FIRE WATER broke inward while opening up a long early lead, extended that margin through the backstretch, was pressured from the quarter pole then overcome with a furlong to go.
