Footnotes

FREE N CLEAR came away without apparent mishap, raced from the two path and from between rivals on the clubhouse turn, tipped out to be three wide entering the backstretch, rushed up to confront the front runners between calls down the backstretch, pulling some on the bit, got to within a long neck of claiming the advantage before being eased back into more of a stalking role, kept watch from the three path on the far turn, picked up interest and challenged for command heading home, chopped away at the deficit in a steadfast manner, drew on even terms with under a sixteenth to go, wore down the leader for good in the final seventy yards then edged away. LOUISVILLE FIRST grabbed command soon after the start, got guided over to the rail, carved out the pace being rated from along the inside route, with a reserved AMETRINE in accompaniment parked out in path two, felt the presence of the winner too as the field entered the stretch, got put to a drive, arrived at the furlong marker still in front but with the top one hitched up, continued to offer determination before finally getting worn down with less than a sixteenth to go. AMETRINE rated prompting the pacesetter from the two path for over six furlongs, weakened down the stretch. HIGHWAY STAR bobbled at the start, raced from off the inside, spun three wide both onto and off the backstretch, tipped into path four coming to the five-sixteenths pole, mustered up a mild kick to garner a share of the last major check. FROSTY MARGARITA was quickly placed along the inside route, was forced to remain on hold waiting behind the runner up approaching the quarter pole, found some room to angle outward a short distance past that station, would up three wide by the conclusion of the maneuver, made no impact. LADY LUCKY failed to menace off a ground-saving journey. NAKED EMPRESS unhurried from the two path during the initial stages, took up the chase three wide on the second bend, tired.
