Footnotes

ZAGORA (FR) came away in good order, settled in midpack from off the inside and sat reserved until the later stages of the run around the far turn, got asked for a response spinning into the lane, closed in on the pacesetter, arriving at the furlong marker full of run, took over soon afterwards and was nearly two in front with a sixteenth to go, staved off the mild late threat coming from HUNGRY ISLAND, crossing the wire under hand urging. HUNGRY ISLAND reserved while racing along the outside for the opening six furlongs, swung four wide into the stretch, got straightened away and came home with good energy to garner the place, although never posing a major danger to the top one. SUMMER SOIREE quickly established control and was sent over towards the inside, sped off from the others under her own power, opening up her biggest advantage between calls down the backstretch, felt the others closing in leaving the midway point on the turn, waited a little while then got asked, was reeled in by ZAGORA a short distance past the eighth pole, weakened steadily thereafter into the show slot. RUTHENIA contently rode the hedge in the initial going, was let out a notch then commenced to angled outward approaching the five-sixteenths marker, was five wide by the top of the stretch, mustered up a mild response en route for the last major check. HEAVENLY LANDING saved ground to no avail. TAPITSFLY rated while stalking the leader from the two path until the quarter pole, failed to fire when called upon. THUNDERING EMILIA tracked the front runner while taking the inside route, remained a prominent factor until the midstretch before backing away. MYKINDOFLADYFRIEND three wide on both turns, folded.
