Footnotes

MO MAVERICK directly abreast of CALL ME HARRY for the initial panel, was eased back, tipped into the two path coming up to the top of the turn, and after being let out a notch, hitched up to the aforementioned opponent, kept the pressure on from the half mile pole to the quarter pole, inched up towards that one as the half was being completed, settled in at the top of the lane and was given his cue, forged to the front end by the beginning of the final furlong after battling from between rivals to get there, saw a three-way tussle morph into a one on one sort a sixteenth later, dug in gamely to fend off the second place finisher. BUSTIN SHOUT along the outside throughout, departed the backstretch from the three path, increased its presence as the second fraction was being finalized, got cued up, vied with vigour as the outermost of three from the top of the lane until the general of the sixteenth marker, left that station dueling with the winner, was determined to the end but had to settle for the place. CALL ME HARRY assumed control early on the backstretch after MO MAVERICK backed off a bit, cut over to the rail once sufficiently in the clear soon afterwards, showed the way, pressed by the top one, had the runner up arrive on the scene at the end of the bend, got turned loose, gave in to the outside assault deep into the furlong grounds, fought on with willingness afterwards to earn the show award. VALMONT took up position in midpack, worked out a tuck along the inside at the seven-sixteenths pole, patiently kept watch on the front runners, angled four wide spinning into the stretch, narrowed in. OPT darted over to the rail, was still on it entering the stretch, gradually altered into path five during the final furlong, gained some. QIAN B C gently pinched shortly after the field had been sent on its way, travelled two wide on the turn, got moved out into the five path for the drive, made no impact. COLONEL TOM failed to fire after undergoing a ground-saving journey. STEELERSFANFORLIFE pursued the pace from the two path, got sent out five wide entering the stretch, never made his presence felt. FREEWHEELER chased the pace two to three wide, fanned out six once in the stretch while backing away.
