MAXWELL ESQUIRE spotted onto the inside route in short order, flashed interest springing from the five-sixteenths pole, fanned out into path six from upper to midstretch, closed the gap on the one to catch, out-dueled that opponent in the final sixteenth to prove best. DURESS departed the backstretch from the three path, crept up as the half was being completed, took over after challenging in the earnest in the general area of the three-sixteenths marker, left the eighth pole in possession of his largest advantage but with the winner bearing down hard to the outside, failed to keep pace in the last sixteenth, had no trouble salvaging second. BOURBON CURRENCY two to three wide on the turn, angled five wide for the drive, was along for the show. FAME TO FAMOUS hustled from the gate, brought up the back of the pack nevertheless, tipped into the two path by the top of the turn, was already being asked for more prior to the quarter pole, got steered about seven wide from upper to midlane, made no impact. CRYOGENIC made light contact with FRENCH REEF in the shadow of the starting gate, pursued the front runners from just off the rail on the turn, was moved out two wide stepping onto the top of the lane, gave way. MONTAUK DADDY along the inside arguing for control with FRENCH REEF during the initial stages, was briefly shaken off, tipped to be outside the aforementioned foe leaving the half mile pole for another go for the top, kept at it until upper stretch before backing away. FRENCH REEF (IRE) brushed at the start, went on to secure a prominent position, vied for command two wide on the backstretch then from along the rail on the bend, came under heavy pressure as the second fraction was being finalized, readily succumbed.
