Footnotes

OUR STAR , under a firm hold early while saving ground, angled out past the five eighths, moved up wide into the far turn, bid four wide outside the leader nearing the lane, struck the top soon into the stretch, kicked clear under solid handling, turned away a mild threat in mid stretch and widened while kept to task. BEYOND FOREVER settled inside, angled out near the far turn, circled five wide into the stretch, ranged up to loom in mid stretch but flattened out. REILTIN OIR rated off the leaders heading to the first turn, pulled her way forward and bid three deep to command near the five eighths, cleared after a half mile, dug in briefly when threatened past the quarter pole then weakened in the final furlong. COSITA RICA pressed two wide, raced between foes past the five eighths, pursued into the far turn then tired. HELL OF AFIRE took over early, set the pace towards the inside, could not fend off a challenge near the five eighths and faltered.
